AT THIS CRITICAL MOMENT, THE GOLD COAST NEEDS
'GREAT LEADERS.'

We are faced with a national and global economic crisis, a health care crisis that threatens to bankrupt governments, an energy crisis that could affect our entire planet and an education crisis that threatens our nation's competitive edge and our children's futures.

Our city is strongest when our elected leaders are accessible and accountable to its citizens, explaining their decisions and answering tough questions. That standard of openness must start long before Election Day. Come along and find out what these mayoral aspirants have planned for the current and future businesses of the Gold Coast?

This Gold Coast Combined Chamber of Commerce breakfast is THE one to be at and will focus on the issues that matter most to the Gold Coast.
